

Auctioneering Example Script.

Good morning ladies and gentlemen, my name is Will Smith and today I will be selling on behalf of The Riverina Anglican College.

I will be selling under the standard ALPA terms and conditions.

Today we have a nice line up of lambs for sale.

They are Armdale Park bloodline weighing in at 60kg

Look at the length and depth of these lambs ladies and gentlemen.

They'll hang up like house bricks.

So who's got 150 to start me off?

I've got a bid of $150 and 150 I've got.

Got a bid 150, got a bid 50 got a bid 50 and 50's the money.

160, got a bid 60

70, 170 I've got, got a bid 70, got a bid 70, got a bid 70 and 170 the money.

Ladies and gentlemen let's take a moment to appreciate the quality of these lambs.

They'll dress exceptionally well.

They're neat as a pin, smooth as butter and twice as thick.

The bid is at 170 with buyer number 5.

Got a bid 70, got a bid 70.

80, 180 I've got. Got a bid 80 and I'll take you in 5's.

185, 185 I've got and 185 the money.

90, 190 I've got, got a bid 90, got a bid 90, and 90 the money.

5, 95, 195.

200, 200 dollars, got a bid 200.

200 I've got, 200 hundred dollars the money.

(Build this up from here)

200 dollars and it's gonna sell.

Quick!

All done!

And out it goes (CLAP) at 200 dollars to buyer number 5.

Ladies and gentlemen, I'd like to thank the buyers and underbidders for your spirited competition.

My name is Will Smith.

Thank you!
